FOREWORD

We have become more aware of and concerned with the contributions and special problems of Americans of Hispanic ancestory, especially Spanish-speaking. Therefore, and at the special request of HUD's Assistant Secretary for Equal Opportunity, the Library staff compiled this selection of the literature.

Items chosen for inclusion concentrate on providing general historical background, and insight into their educational, economic and social adjustment. English language materials only are included.

The user who wishes to do further research should refer to the specialized bibliographies cited at the end of each section.

HUD cannot supply the publications listed. To secure copies please consult your library or book dealer, or write the publishers.
